

Unusually Heavy Vote for Off Year Is Expected Today

Municipal and County Contests
Have Developed the Most Lively Campaigns

Gotham All Agog

Political Prophets Baffled by First Appearance of Women in the Mayoralty Election

Albany, Nov. 7. — Municipal and county contests in nearly all sections of New York state are expected by political workers to result tomorrow in the polling of an unusually heavy vote for an "off year." Apparently the general interest has been manifested in the campaign for associate judge of the court of appeals, in which Supreme Court Justice William S. Andrews of Syracuse, Republican, is opposed by Townsend Scudder of Glen Head, Long Island, Democrat, or in the seven proposed amendments to the state constitution.

In a few upstate counties that were normally Republican, Democratic candidates for the assembly have put up lively campaigns, the outcomes of which are awaited with more than ordinary interest.

Most of the interest, however, has been centered in local contests for county and municipal office. In this city, which has been under Republican administration for 20 years, the Democrats have waged a whirlwind campaign in behalf of the mayoralty nominee, William S. Hackett, a banker, against the choice of the Republicans, William VanKensseler Irving, formerly commissioner of public safety. Leaders of both parties profess to be confident of victory. Mayoral elections also dominate the situation in the neighboring cities of Troy and Schenectady. In the latter city, Mayor James W. Fleming, Democrat, is opposed to John A. K. Kaps, Republican, and John J. Ryan, Independent. Mayor George R. Lunn, Schenectady's Democratic executive, is opposed by Leon G. Dibble, Republican.

Mayoralty elections will be held in more than 40 other cities, including Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse, Utica, Elmira, Poughkeepsie, Ithaca, Amsterdam and Oneonta.

WOMEN HOLD CENTER OF INTEREST IN NEW YORK

New York, Nov. 7. — Canny cautioning tonight to the tongues of political prophets on the eve of New York's 1921 municipal election, for all candidates were watching carefully the way the daughters should cast their ballots on the morrow for the first mayor they had helped choose.

While the campaign managers of Mayor John P. Hylan, Tammany's candidate for re-election, and the political advisers of Henry H. Curran, president of the borough of Manhattan, who heads the coalition ticket, were equally profuse in predictions of victory, both sides admitted that 41,915 women entering the ring, much depended on the result.

Neither Hylan nor Curran, conceded to be the leading aspirants for mayoralty honors, apparently thought his position sufficiently secure to warrant a holiday on the day before the ballots were cast, and each continued his campaign, clamoring to the zero hour.

Candidates Use Wireless Telephone.

Curran waved the Coalition banner at a business men's luncheon and then passed this evening, when it was announced his last election gun would be fired in the form of a statement to voters transmitted by wireless telephone.

Hylan saved most of his strength for tonight, when four set speeches were on his log, and a number of impromptu addresses in prospect. He then, elected to bring wireless telephony into play, for in his rostrum was installed apparatus which carried his voice to several thousand amateur operators listening in.

The topics which the candidates chose for their final election speeches were those on which they had thundered for many weeks of campaigning—the "five cent fare," a program for enlarging New York's public school system, "home rule for the city," road, rail and mediocrity, and politics of the city.

Meanwhile, a sinister note was sounded today by Judge Talley of general sessions, himself a candidate for re-election, who directed two new grand juries to put aside all other business in order to deal promptly with possible violators of the election laws.

"Scandal and Disgrace."

"Last year, in this county," he declared, "the manner in which the count of votes for certain offices was made was a scandal and disgrace. In some sections of the city, inspectors deserted their posts. In others, they were exhausted before the canvass was completed, and in some districts messengers were sent out scurrying in the middle of the night to pick up stragglers and stragglers to count the vote, and all ways made it possible to nullify the expressed will of the people by a fraudulent and improper count of the vote."

Judge Talley suggested that school teachers be pressed into service to count ballots, instead of utilizing "persons from the highways and byways," even if the count had to be postponed until the day after election.

In this connection, the Honest Ballot association announced that 1,900 teachers had been recruited. Several hundred names already have been presented to the board of elections to be placed on the official challenge list. The watchers will go on duty when the polls open at 6 a. m. and will remain until the closing at 6 p. m.

Entered in the mayoralty field with Hylan and Curran are Magistrate Jacob Panken, Socialist; Jerome de Hunt, Farmer-Labor; George K. Hinds, Prohibition; John P. Quinn, Socialist Labor; Joseph D. Miller, Single Tax; and Benjamin Giltow, Workers' League (Communists).

Communist's Name Not on Ballot.

The board of elections officially scratched Giltow's name off the ballot because he now is serving a term in Sing Sing for criminal anarchy, with Harry Winitsky, his running mate for president of the board of aldermen. His supporters, however, are planning to write his name into the ticket.

Women are running for a number of offices, including Mrs. Rosa Pastor Stokes, who, under the Communist banner, is seeking the presidency of the borough of Manhattan, but the event which might be termed the "women's special" is the contest for registrar. Entries include: Helen Vardek Boswell, Republican; Annie Mathews, Democratic; Olga Long, Socialist; and Grace Primmer, Farmer-Labor. Albert T. Hull, Prohibitionist, and John J. Hopper, appearing on both Single Tax and Torrens Law tickets, also have wandered into the race, but political observers assert they will be left at the post.

Besides municipal offices, the city will elect 66 members to the state assembly and fill a vacancy in the senate from the 16th district caused by the resignation of Senator Martin McGuire. New Yorkers also will vote on seven amendments to the state constitution, with interest centering chiefly in that proposing preference in civil service employment and promotion to veterans of the Spanish and World wars.

Socialists are hopeful of capturing places in the assembly and on the board of aldermen.

STATE OFFICIAL ACCUSED

Insurance Commissioner of Pennsylvania Held in $10,000 Bail on Conspiracy Charges.

Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—Thomas B. Donaldson, insurance commissioner of Pennsylvania, was held by a magistrate today in $10,000 bail for court on charges of conspiracy which grew out of an investigation of private fire insurance adjusters in Philadelphia under the direction of the state insurance department. Donaldson said the investigation was started to break up an "arson ring" that applied the torch for big profits.

Miss Margaret Enslen, a stenographer, who admitted on the witness stand that she had been engaged to listen to telephone conversations and tapped wires to obtain business papers of a fire insurance adjuster, was held in $5,000 bail as a material witness.

Officials of a number of insurance companies testified that contributions on the basis of one mill per dollar on net premiums were solicited for insurance companies by Commissioner Donaldson. A letter bearing the commissioner's signature, in which contributions to investigate the alleged arson ring were solicited, was produced.

Summary of Amendments to Be Voted On At Today's Election

EMPLOYERS REFUSE ARBITRATION PLEA

Milk Distributors Tell Health Commissioner Copeland They Are Paying Wages Men Demand

New York, Nov. 7.—Health Commissioner Copeland today failed in a new attempt to close the breach between milk distributors and their union employees, who struck last week.

The employers stood by their avowed determination to operate in the future on an open shop basis, while in the meantime no deliveries of milk were made to houses, and purchasers had to go to milk stations or stores for their supplies.

Union leaders suggested to Dr. Copeland that he act as arbitrator in the dispute between them and the milk conference board, representing the employers, but the board declined to arbitrate.

The distributors' position was set forth in a letter to Dr. Copeland saying they rejected his offer "because we already have agreed to pay a wage and are now paying the old wage scale, and therefore it becomes merely an offer to arbitrate wages upwards and obviously it is impossible of acceptance."

Dr. Copeland described his appeal as made in the name of the public, its health, and especially 30,000 people of the city who were exposed to disease, he declared, by prevailing conditions.

The employers replied they were "tired of union domineering and intended to recapture their business from the hands of labor leaders."

The meeting then broke up, the health commissioner warning the employers that they would be accountable for sanitary conditions.

An intention prohibiting strikers from interfering in any way with the distribution of milk by three of the largest concerns was issued in New Jersey by Vice Chancellor Foster.

Incidental disturbances were reported from several sections, a committee of women of the milk drivers' auxiliary complaining to Mayor Hylan that police were treating strikers with "brutality."

The mayor said he would investigate.

Milk wagons will be stationed at every crossing on Upper Broadway for three hours Wednesday morning to sell milk to householders. Each wagon will be guarded by a policeman while motorcycle police will patrol the six-mile stretch. Similar retail milk routes will be established in Lexington avenue, Manhattan and Bedford avenue, in Brooklyn, the distributing companies announced today. A force of 24 men will be used with relays of motor trucks to replenish the retail stocks during the hours of sale. The service will be extended to the entire city, the distributors said, until the milk drivers' strike is broken.

Several minor disturbances by strike sympathizers today were reported to the police, who made several arrests for assaults.

Striking milk company employees roared their determination to return to work only under closed shop conditions at a mass meeting tonight. They also gave their leaders a vote of confidence. Similar meetings were held in other sections of the metropolitan area. Strike leaders called the roll of the various sections of the union to determine the strength of the strike.

"One hundred per cent out and three men in jail," was a typical response.

CRAIG SUMMONS HIS CABINET TO LONDON

After Consultation, Will Again
Confer With Lloyd George
Thursday Afternoon

(By The Associated Press.)

London, Nov. 7.—The discussions on an Irish settlement are nearing a climax. After a long conference with Mr. Lloyd George today, Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, summoned the members of his cabinet to Belfast for a meeting of the cabinet to consider the proposal made by the British government.

The official announcement of this action also stated that there would be a further conference with Mr. Lloyd George Thursday afternoon.

The Irish situation, it was frankly admitted in official circles tonight, is in an extremely critical stage. It is understood that Ulster premier informed Mr. Lloyd George that he could not possibly think of shouldering the responsibility of securing the peace in Ireland, which was the prime minister and would be compelled to consult his colleagues in the Ulster parliament and also the representatives of the Ulster parliamentary group in Westminster.

Sir James authorized the statement that Mr. Lloyd George had consented to meet the Ulster delegation after their meeting with Sir James.

Everything, it is said, now depends on Thursday's meetings and if the Ulster representatives definitely reject the compromise proposals, it is regarded as possible that Mr. Lloyd George will carry out his threat to resign from office.

According to a report issued at a late hour tonight, the serious official view regarding the negotiations is due to the attitude taken by the Ulster premier in his interviews with the prime minister.

The opinion was expressed in Ulster quarters tonight that the British government, having dealt with the matter only, had arrived at a totally false estimate of the realities of the situation.

Aside from his conference with Mr. Lloyd George, the Ulster premier was busy during a large part of the day dealing with the transference of the civil services to the Ulster government.

ARMED MEN GET ALL REGISTERED MAIL ON TRAIN

Also Make Away With Contents of Safe in Bold Robbery on Illinois Central

NO TRACE OF GANG

Mail and Baggage Cars Detached and Run Mile Down Track
Before Being Looted

Paxton, Ill., Nov. 7.—The New Orleans Limited passenger train of the Illinois Central railroad was held up tonight by armed robbers south of Paxton and looted of all registered mail and the contents of the safe, which was blown open after the bandits had forced the engineer and fireman to disconnect the mail and baggage cars and run them to a bridge crossing a street farther south.

The engineer and fireman at first hesitated to comply with the demands of the robbers, who crept over the tender into the cab, but when pistols were thrust into their faces, they complied and escaped alive. In dynamiting the safe, the robbers set fire to the interior of the steel mail car. After they had fired in a waiting automobile, the engine crew returned to the rest of their train, cut out the burning mail car, and proceeded to Chicago, the most distant point.

The train left Chicago loaded with passengers at 6:30 tonight and passing through Paxton at high speed had gone some two miles when the fireman saw the masked men sliding down the coal pile in the glare from the open firebox door.

Holdup Staged Mile Away.

The men forced the engineer to stop the train and then commanded the fireman to uncouple the mail and baggage cars. As soon as these cars were disconnected, they went back to the cab and ordered the engineer to proceed.

A mile south of the hold-up, the robbers commanded the engine crew to stop. While one of the men kept the engineer and fireman guarded in the cab, the other robbers entered the mail car and blew open the safe. All the registered mail and all the valuables in the safe were placed in a bag. The robbers then carried their loot to an automobile waiting nearby, waved good-night to the trainmen, and dashed away.

Released from the commanding muzzles of the bandits' pistols, the engineer and fireman, although they could see smoke and flames coming from the door of the mail car, quickly backed up to the rest of the train. The burning mail car was switched off the track as quickly as possible and the locomotive and baggage car were connected to the passenger coaches and the train proceeded to Campaign.

While in Idaho.

American Falls, Idaho, Nov. 7.—A masked bandit tonight held up train 17, west-bound Oregon and Washington Limited, on the Oregon short line railroad, eight miles west of American Falls. The passengers on the observation car were relieved of their valuables, but no attempt was made to enter the baggage and express cars. The bandit is believed to have boarded the observation car here. After robbing the passengers, he ordered a brakeman to stop the train at Coolidge, a small station 12 miles out of American Falls, where an automobile was waiting for him.

OPPOSES USE OF CORN FOR FUEL

Kansas Agricultural Official Brands
Secretary Wallace's Suggestion
as "Unfortunate"

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 7.—The declaration of Henry C. Wallace, secretary of agriculture, that western farmers would find it profitable to burn corn for fuel this winter and that large quantities probably would be consumed for this purpose, was characterized as "unfortunate" today by J. C. Mohler, secretary of the Kansas State Board of Agriculture.

"It strikes me that the statement is unfortunate in that by inference it would seem to encourage the use of this premier foodstuff for fuel," said Mr. Mohler. "Corn is a chief element in the maintenance and fattening of livestock and considering its efficiency in the ration for livestock, certainly it cannot be used to greater advantage than as a foodstuff at the present low prices."

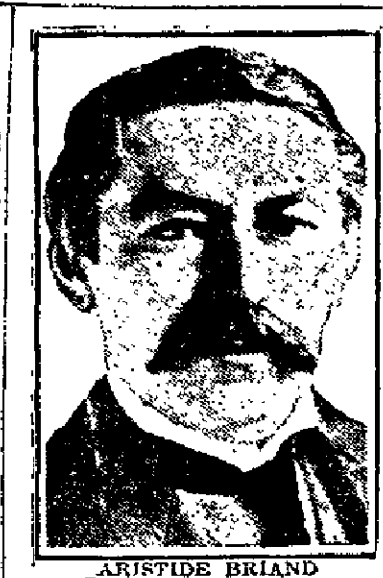

"Moreover, it appears to me that a large carry-over when corn is cheap would be judicious as a protection against the possibility of a short crop next year."

"Even at equal values for heating purposes, burning corn in place of coal involves economic waste."

"To destroy the value of coal by substituting corn as fuel and at the same time depriving the world of the service that corn may render as food and fuel is ridiculous. The whole tendency, in a broad way, is to increase the cost of living and to add to unemployment."

FRANCE'S SECURITY MUST BE ASSURED, BRIAND DECLARES

But if Protected Is Ready to Join in Every Endeavor to Avert New Wars, He Says on Arrival

New York, Nov. 7.—France is ready to join in every endeavor to avert new wars, "provided she has nothing to fear for her own security, which remains one of the most solid guarantees of the peace of the world," said Premier Aristide Briand in a message to the American people upon his arrival at Washington.

"Just because she had to suffer from the war more than any other nation," he added, "she is ready to approach the problems of the conference in the most favorable spirit for the maintenance of peace."

"Between France and the United States of America there is no room for any difference, however slight. Both our countries only endeavor to lend the men and peoples of good will to peaceful and fruitful work and to reduce more and more the risks of war."

"Today the world which is in such need of safety and rest wants not only soothing words but realities."

Premier Briand, who said he would reserve formal comment on the conference until he had seen President Harding, comes with the purpose of assisting during the first 15 days of the conference in determining the principles upon which subsequent details and results will rest. He comes without instruction. The French ministry gave him none. The French Senate and the Chamber of Deputies gave him a free hand. He will enter the conference with general policies clear in his own mind and in the minds of other members of the delegation. These include:

First, the French government's obligations to the League of Nations do not preclude France from joining other powers inside or outside the league in military armaments or settling other questions that the league considers as within its jurisdiction.

Second, French policy is identical with that of the United States toward equal commercial opportunities in China.

Third, the restriction of sea armaments offers no difficulties peculiar to France. It may be already below any formula likely to be adopted.

Premier Arrives at Capital.

Washington, Nov. 7.—The French delegation to the conference on limitation of armaments is and Pacific affairs was completed tonight with the arrival of Aristide Briand, premier of France, at the 11th of several delegates from that country. He, with the other members of the party, was greeted by official representatives of the American government and was cheered by thousands of spectators at the railway station.

Secretary of State Hughes was the first to grasp the hand of the French premier and to extend the government's welcome to the visitors as they stepped from their special train. It was the second occasion, on which the secretary had personally welcomed a conference group at the nation's capital. Following the taking of representative of the group, also was present and was the first to salute and greet General Bland, chief of staff of the French army and acting military advisor to the delegation.

FIVE SOLDIERS CONVICTED OF MURDER ARE PARDONED

Leavenworth, Kan., Nov. 7.—Five former American soldiers, convicted in Coblenz, Germany, by a court martial of the murder of Captain Gilbert Lanesfield of the British army, today left the federal prison here, pardoned by the President. The men were released in the army, given honorable discharges and paid for the time of their arrest in Germany.

The effect of the re-employment and honorable discharge process, it was explained, was to restore fully the rights of citizenship of the five.

The men then left for their homes. They are James A. O'Dell, Comanche, Okla.; Roy Trueblood, Omaha, Neb.; George VanGilder, Toledo, Ohio; Carl J. Bryan, McConnell, Texas; and J. E. Richardson, Denton, Texas.

STRIKE OF PITTSBURGH MINE WORKERS AVERTED

Pittsburgh, Nov. 7.—A strike of miners in the Pittsburgh district was averted tonight when, after the Pittsburgh Coal Producers' association had notified union officials that they would continue to enforce the "check-off," J. E. Gibbons, president of District 12, United Mine Workers of America, recalled the order for a strike which was to have gone into effect at midnight tonight.

Tax Revision Bill Passed by Senate After Long Session

Still Must Run Gauntlet of Conference Before It Reaches the President

Vote Is 38-24

Measure as Now Drawn Estimated to Yield Approximately $3,250,000,000

(By The Associated Press.)

Washington, Nov. 8.—The much-revised tax revision bill finally was passed by the senate at 1:35 a. m. today after a session lasting more than 15 hours. It still must run the gauntlet of the senate and house conferences before it reaches the president.

The vote was 38 to 24, three Republicans—La Follette, Mueser and Norris—voting against the bill, and one Democrat, Brown, supporting it. As now drawn, the bill estimated by treasury experts to yield approximately $3,250,000,000 for fiscal year ending next June 30, or $200,000,000 less than the existing law. If all the changes proposed become effective, however, the measure ultimately will reduce the nation's tax bill by approximately $750,000,000 a year.

Senate conferees on the bill were named as follows: Penrose, McCumber and Smoot, Republicans; Simmons and Williams, Democrats. The bill is to be reported to the house Wednesday and Republican leaders plan on Thursday to send it to conference.

Outstanding features of the tax revision bill provide for repeal of the excess profits tax and all of the transportation taxes on next January 1, and a reduction of the surtax rates all along the line, with the maximum rate reduced from 65 per cent to 50 per cent.

What the Bill Repeals.

Besides these changes, the bill would repeal taxes on:

Travel post packages, proprietary medicines, toilet soaps and toilet soap powders, tooth powder, tooth and mouth washes, toilet powders and petroleum jellies. (Stamp taxes.)
Pianos and other musical instruments.
Umbrellas, parasols, sun shades, picture frames and various articles of wearing apparel costing in excess of certain amounts. (So-called luxury taxes.)

Insurance premiums, articles made of fur, moving picture films, ice cream, chewing gum, sporting goods, including billiard balls and tables, pool tables and dice, adhesives where the cost does not exceed ten cents, pleasure boats and canoes costing less than $100, thermos and thermostat bottles and flasks.
Portable electric fans.
Bonds of indemnity and surety (stamp taxes).

Taxes to Be Reduced.

Taxes proposed to be reduced include those on:

Individual incomes of $5,000 or less, through increased exemptions of $500 to heads of families and $200 for each dependent.
Capital from five per cent. to three per cent.
Works of art from ten per cent. to five per cent.
Capital stock issues having a par value of less than $100 a share. (Stamp taxes.)
Cereal beverages from 15 per cent. of the sale price to two cents a gallon.
Unfermented fruit juices from ten per cent. of the sale price to two cents a gallon.

Carbonated beverages from ten per cent. of the sale price to two cents a gallon plus five cents a gallon on the syrups used in their manufacture.

Taxes to Be Increased.

Taxes proposed to be increased include those on:

Corporate incomes, from ten per cent. to 15 per cent.
Corporation through the repeal of the $2,000 per cent exemption on the having a capital stock at least of $25,000.
Estate taxes where the total sum exceeds $10,000,000.
Medicinal beer, wine, except champagne and whiskey.

Abolished when directed nationwide for beverage purposes, from $229 a gallon to $8.10 a gallon.
Taxes proposed to be claimed in future include:

Stamp taxes on foreign drinks to amount to cents a gallon on imported liquors, and cents a gallon on imported liquors for each drink.
Extra stamp taxes on carboys, rust, tanks, kettles, traveling cases, suitcases, tool boxes, toilet cases, pocket books, shopping and handbags, purses, portable lighting fixtures, including lamps of all kinds and lamp shades, and fans costing in excess of certain amounts to manufacturers, taxes of five per cent.

New taxes proposed to be imposed include:

Taxes on taxes of property owned by any persons at rates ranging from one per cent on the amount between $25,000 and $50,000 to 25 per cent on $100,000 or more.

Manufacturers' tax of five per cent on carbonic acid gas to make up part of the revenue lost in repealing the soda water taxes.

Amendments Rapidly Disposed Of.

During the day, the senate rejected the two remaining soldier bonus amendments and then proceeded to dispose of the other amendments in rapid succession.

The debate on the Simmons and McKellar amendments proposing to utilize part of the interest of the foreign debt to furnish adjusted compensation for former service men, consumed the first five hours of the session. Both proposals were rejected by decisive votes, the Simmons amendment 42 to 29 and the McKellar amendment 44 to 25.

Without a roll call, the senate adjourned under which the net gain under a taxpayer on the sales of stocks of corporations would be taxed at the full income normal and surtax rates. It was agreed that under the committee bill only 40 percent of such gain would have been taxable because such sales would have come under the provision dealing with the taxation of gain from disposition of capital assets.

Senator Leonard declared that under the Senate amendment "stock day" the gamblers in Wall Street would have been able to escape taxation of 60 per cent of their profits. He also contended that stock holders receiving stock dividends could convert their earnings into cash and escape taxation on 60 per cent of the gain thus made.

Technicalities Plan Accepted.

Under an amendment by Senator Ford, which was accepted, any trade or business owned by a partnership or individual which was organized within four months after the passage of the tax bill as a corporation, might at the option of the partnership or individual, pay the corporation tax on the net income received from January 1, 1921, to the date of such organization. It was provided, however, that this action would not be extended in the case of any business which realized in the taxable year of 1921, 20 per cent or more profit on the capital invested.

The senate adopted, 35 to 31, an amendment by Senator Walsh of Massachusetts providing for a graduated tax on "transfer of property by gifts by every person." The rates range from one per cent of the amount by which the gifts exceed $20,000 and do not exceed $60,000, to 25 to 25 per cent on the amount in excess of $10,000.

Thirteen Republicans joined the Democratic minority in supporting the amendment, which, it was explained, is designed to prevent wealthy individuals from escaping the payment of surtax through the device of their property among relatives.

By a vote of 37 to 22, the senate rejected an amendment by Senator Jones of New Mexico, proposing to allow partnerships and individuals to elect whether they should pay taxes on the net income from their business at the corporation or individual income rates.

Then, on motion of Senator Penrose, Democrat of Ohio, the senate voted, 41 to 24, to make the capital stock tax on all corporations the same as at present—$1 on each $1,000 of capital stock in excess of $5,000.

Another effort to continue the excess profits tax for this calendar year failed, the senate rejecting, 28 to 59, an amendment by Senator Reed proposing a tax of 20 per cent on net profits of corporations in excess of 50 per cent of the invested capital. The amendment was supported by seven Republicans—Capper, Johnson, Kenyon, La Follette, McNary, Norbeck and Norris.

For a second time and by a vote of 35 to 21, the senate rejected the La Follette amendment proposing to make tax returns a matter of public record. Seven Republicans joined the Democrats in supporting the amendment.

ACCUSES RICKARD OF BRUTAL ASSAULT

Lawyer in Receivership Action Against Boxing Promoter Makes
Charge in Open Court

New York, Nov. 7.—An unsuccessful opponent today postponement of the boxing reception sought for Tex Rickard, boxing promoter, Thomas H. O'Neill, counsel for Frank C. As a result Armstrong needed medical attention, O'Neill told the court. He also charged that the assault had been made with intent to kill.

Supporting O'Neill Justice Guy postponed the boxing until next Monday after counsel for the Madison square garden corporation and Madison sporting club, Inc., co-defendants, had explained he had not the time to appear at times it with the case.

HOLIDAYS AFFECT STOCK EXCHANGE

Visible Diminution of Business Is Noted — Fairly Active Trading in Bonds

New York, Nov. 7.—Tomorrow's recess (election day) and prospect of another holiday (Armistice day) in the latter part of the week, caused a visible diminution of business on the stock exchange today.

There was fairly active trading in bonds, however, some of the Liberty issues mounting to new high records for the year before trading was suspended. Speculative interests caused a moderate setback.

Other incidents of an otherwise professional session included the upward movement of money rates (call loans rising from the initial five per cent rate to six per cent in the afternoon, and the further acute collapse of German marks to a level below three for one cent.

Diminution of the more representative foreign and domestic oils at 200 advances of 1 to 3 1/2 points, and irregular gains of certain of the motor, food and miscellaneous specialties the trend in the market was hesitant.

Aside from the Grangers and Farmers, rails were non-existent and equipments, steels and the numerous issues having more or less direct relation to those groups, moved within the narrowest bounds.

The following Liberty bonds and other government issues did not extend to the industrial list, some of that class, notably United States Steel's, showing strength. High class rails also reflected substantial support. International for the most part were better.

How To Revitalize Wornout Exhausted Nerves

Your nerve power depends on plenty of good, rich, red blood of the kind that organic iron—Nuxated Iron—helps make. Nuxated Iron is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lettuce and apples, while iron pills are just as it comes from the action of strong acids on iron filings. Nuxated Iron does not injure the stomach nor upset the stomach; it is an entirely different thing from ordinary iron pills. It quickly helps make rich, red blood, revitalizes wornout, exhausted nerves and gives you new strength and energy. Over 400,000 people annually are using it. Beware of substitutes. Always insist upon having genuine organic iron—Nuxated Iron. Look for the letters N I on every tablet. Sold by all druggists in tablets only—never in liquid form.

THE SEVEN AMENDMENTS.

There are seven propositions on the amendment ballot which today will be presented to the voters of the state of New York and on each separate one they have the privilege of voting. Four of these propositions are general in their nature and the other three in a sense local, though on account of the present provisions of the fundamental law, amendments to the constitution are necessary in order to make them operative.

Of the three minor amendments, one confers on the counties of Westchester and Nassau the privilege of voting as to whether they shall continue the present form of county government, with a board of supervisors or adopt one more in consonance with conditions in a territory which is practically urban. The two others permit the state to sell abandoned parts of the Erie canal in Herkimer and Oneida counties, which it disposed of under the old ditch act.

At present the old ditch consists of a string of stagnant pools, each breathing miasma. So far as can be seen, there is no reason why anybody should vote against these propositions.

The first proposition on the ballot, and perhaps that concerning which there has been most discussion, is the one which it is proposed to extend a preference in employment and promotion under the civil service to veterans of the Spanish and World Wars. Another proposes to increase the salaries of members of the legislature from the present figure of $1,500 to $3,000 annually. The third would prohibit any person attaining his majority after January 1, 1922, from voting unless such person is able to read and write English; and another, numbered 5 on the ballot authorizes the legislature to establish children's courts and courts of domestic relations.

Doubtless voters generally have either read these propositions for themselves or have had their nature fully explained and have already decided how they will vote. Whatever that decision may have been it is unquestionably important that they vote one way or the other, to the end that matters so important shall be decided by a decisive majority.

CORN BORER EXTENDS FIELD.

Only a few years ago the European corn borer, one of the most destructive of insects preying upon maize on the other side of the Atlantic, was discovered in separate sections in New England and New York, the infection having undoubtedly come in stages from abroad. To combat the extension of the activities of the borer, quarantines were established, the shipment of corn products from the infected areas was prohibited and an effort was made to destroy by burning all the corn stalks and other plants known to carry the parasite.

Unfortunately, strict as the quarantine has been, there has been gradual extension of the field of activities of the borer, one instance being in Schoharie county, where the former infected zone which was in the town of Esperance, has gradually grown to embrace Schoharie, Wright, Middleburgh and Cobleskill. There has been extension also in number of counties, so that now there are no less than ten in eastern and northern New York, in western New York, and in Ontario, Oswego, Chautauque and Delaware are among the counties as yet immune and it is hoped that there will be no extension of the pest in this direction.

Among the plant which might be carriers of the borer and so are prohibited from transportation out of infected areas save after inspection and certification by the government. Authorities are corn and broom corn, sorghums, celery, and beans in the pod, beets with tops, spinach, rhubarb, out and yew straw, cut flowers or plants of chrysanthemums, asters, cosmos, zinnia, hollyhock and gladiolus and dahlias, except the bulbs of the two latter without stems.

His Ninety-Third Birthday.

Merritt S. Roberts, father of Mrs. George L. Moore of 2 Walling boulevard and well known in this city, celebrated his 93rd birthday at his home at East Mendon yesterday. Despite the fact that he has lived many years over the allotted three score and ten, Mr. Roberts is active and in possession of all his faculties. He is the oldest member of the Oneonta Masonic lodge, having been initiated into the fraternity in 1864. The lodge rooms at that time were over a marble shop which stood on the present site of the Citizens' bank.

Enjoyable Surprise Party.

About thirty friends of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Munson gave them a surprise at the residence of Lewis Munson on the Outlook, Saturday evening. The evening was spent with music, games and dancing and delicious refreshments were served. Later in the evening the bride and groom were presented with a sum of money as a remembrance of the occasion. At a late hour the guests departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Munson a long and happy wedded life.

In Demand as Speaker.

Dr. George J. Dann, city superintendent of schools, despite the fact that the schools are to have two holidays the present week, made that his time is pretty well occupied. He is announced to address an Armistice day observance in Laurens on Friday and on the following Monday evening is to speak at a service in honor of the Legion men at St. Matthew's church in Utzville.

NOTED DAIRYMEN TO SPEAK

LARGELY ATTENDED GATHERING AT STATE DAIRYMEN'S CONVENTION.

To Be Held in Oneonta Nov. 16, 17 and 18 and Subjects to Be Discussed Will Interest All Connected with the Dairying Industry.

Confidence that the New York State Dairymen's Association will see its largest attended convention in its 15th annual meeting to be held here November 16 to 18, was expressed by Secretary Thomas E. Tiquin, who passed through Oneonta last night on his way to Norwich to cast his vote. He will return to Oneonta to complete final details for the gathering which will hold forth at the State Armory on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week.

An announcement of the addresses which will occupy the two sessions on Thursday was made by Mr. Tiquin last evening. The two leading speeches will be delivered by A. W. Gilbert, commissioner of agriculture of Massachusetts, on "New England Dairy Experiences," opening the morning session and by E. S. Brigham, commissioner of agriculture of Vermont, opening the afternoon session with an address on "Hovine Tuberculosis."

Prof. C. W. Burkitt of New York city, editor of the American Agriculturist, will address the dairymen on "What is the Matter with Us?" Thursday morning. The balance of the forenoon will be given over to a talk from Ole Salte, director of the Bureau of Foods and Drugs of the New York city board of health.

Jerry W. McFarley of Milford, director of the state Bureau of Animal Industry and a director in the Dairymen's association, is listed to lead the discussion Thursday afternoon on a paper, "The Accredited Herd Work in New York State," to be delivered by A. A. Harrison of Hamilton, president of the Hartsborn Holstein company and former president of the Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

Wednesday evening, the opening session, will be "Oneonta Night," with several interesting addresses and a playlet, "The Neighbors," one of Zona Gale's comedies, to be enacted by the Dramatic club of Oneonta High school under the direction of Miss Bessie R. Cowan. Citizens of Oneonta are expected to join with the dairymen in making up a large audience, to enjoy an entertaining program and give a good start off to the annual meeting.

Thursday night will be the annual banquet, at the Hotel Oneonta, and all of the 200 or more dairymen expected for the convention will probably be present at this event. Friday's program consists of two full morning and afternoon programs which promises to excel that of Thursday in the wealth of information on dairy problems to be unfolded by the speakers. The full program for Wednesday night and Friday will doubtless be announced by Mr. Tiquin after his return to the city tonight.

TEN YEAR OLD BOY MISSING

Robert, Young Son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Williams, of 1 Union street, Bay Not Been Seen Since He Left Home For School at 1 O'clock Yesterday Afternoon—Parents and Police Authorities Are Conducting Search.

Robert Williams, ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Williams of 1 Union street, left home for school at about 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, but failed to reach there and was still missing at 2 o'clock this morning. His father, parents and of the police authorities to locate him. Various clues had been run down but to no avail.

The lad, in company with his brother and sister, left the home for school at about 1 o'clock and walked together to the corner of East street, where they parted, the brother and sister, who attend the High school, turning down the street and Robert going up toward the Normal. His father and brother had given him some money with which to buy candy and he said that he was going to stop at Grandall's grocery store before going to school.

When the mother, who is employed at the Wilder store, arrived home at supper time she found that the lad was not at home, although candy left in the house was evidence of the fact that he had been there at some time during the afternoon. She did not think seriously of the matter at the time, as the boy was often late in getting home from school, but when he did not appear later in the evening she became worried. It was found that the boy was not at school during the afternoon, and telephone calls to the homes of his friends revealed the fact that none of them had seen him. The mother then thought that perhaps the lad had gone to Schenectady, where his grandfather, George Sides, lives. The boy had run away once before and had gone there, and as he had been promised a trip to Schenectady in the near future, it was considered possible that he might be in that village. Lateral, but various people with whom the lad had visited were called, but none of them had seen him.

The police were then notified and at 2 a. m. were still hunting for him, but as no one knows in which direction he went, search is a difficult matter. Robert is a slender lad about three feet five inches in height and has a shock of conspicuously red hair and blue eyes. He was dressed in a blue serge suit with a gray Fedora hat, black stockings, and tan shoes. He wore no overcoat.

If anyone in the city or surrounding country saw such a boy yesterday afternoon or last evening, they are asked to communicate with the parents or with the police department.

The police are of the opinion that the lad spent the night at the home of one of his playmates, but that theory is somewhat discounted by the fact that the parents have communicated with the family of every boy with whom their son was at all intimate.

ALONG THE SOUTH SIDE ROAD

Removals, Social Events, Week-End Guests and Other Interesting Things That Are Happening.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Ellis, who have been occupying apartments at 1 Elm street, note this week to their new cottage, which has just been completed on South side, near the Mill farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon C. Sanford yesterday moved into the G. L. Wheeler tenant house, where they will make their home. Mr. Sanford is employed as a car repairer by the D. and H. company. The family had been residing at West Davenport.

Social Events.
Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. Hall entertained about 20 neighbors and friends at their pleasant home last Friday evening. Five hundred was the principal mode of entertainment, but music and social intercourse were other happy features of the evening. Later delicious light refreshments were served, after which the guests departed, with the unanimous opinion that the evening had been one of unusual pleasure.

Mrs. Henry Webb entertained the Ladies' Aid society of the West Davenport church at her home on South Side last Saturday afternoon. After a bounteous dinner, the afternoon was happily passed in a social time. A drawill offering was taken for the benefit of the society's treasurer. About 50 ladies enjoyed Mrs. Webb's hospitality.

A Pretty Sight.
One can hardly pass the residence of Mr. Hartman, unless he is in a awful hurry to get to town, without noticing the beautiful "flower window." Mrs. Hartman has two winter water plants that are a marvel of beauty. Each plant bears approximately 500 blossoms, one plant is yellow and the other white. Mrs. Hartman also has several rare begonias, in pink and other shades. The display is indeed the prettiest that has been seen in many a day.

Harry Polly Sprains Ankle.
Harry Polly, the ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Polly, is confined to the family home suffering with a very painful ankle. While stepping into an auto last Saturday, he turned the ankle over, but gave it no thought as it did not pain him. The next day, however, the ankle was very painful and considerably swollen. He hopes for a change for the better within a day or two.

WISE PLAN OF LAND BANK

Makes Five Millions of Dollars Available to Savings and Loan Associations for Small House Mortgages.

The recent offer of State Comptroller Wendell to purchase Land Bank bonds for the sinking fund of the state puts immediately in the hands of the bank itself a substantial portion of the five millions of dollars recently voted at a meeting of the directors. This money, it should be stated, is for the purpose of furnishing to persons desiring to buy or build small dwelling houses the funds necessary for the transaction, and it is to be loaned directly to Building and Loan associations, like the very successful one in Oneonta, for investment in such property.

In a recent interview Col. Walter Scott, president of the Oneonta Building and Loan association, had the following to say relative to the step taken by the state through the Land Bank. "The recent action of the state in making $5,000,000 available to Building and Loan associations, for loaning on small dwellings house mortgages, in helping to solve the housing shortage, is commendable and also instructive to those who are keeping idle money in stockings or boxes, or to those who would like to invest money safely. The state knows that the money will be safely invested in first mortgages on improved real estate, the safest security known, and if people of the state would fully consider this safety, plenty of money would be taken to Building and Loan associations, with which to build homes and make rent money pay for them. It would also stimulate home building, thereby indirectly helping the unemployment situation.

"On account of the income tax, many of the great insurance companies, trust companies, savings banks and wealthy people, are not loaning on mortgages as they are formerly, thus making it necessary to go to the Building and Loan associations. I would consider that the action of the state is commendable and as educational to a large class of inexperienced people as to investing their money safely, instead of letting it remain idle or in blowing it to Shippy, Shick and Co., as so many are now doing."

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated stores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system. If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit. 15c and 30c.

Relieving burdensome school taxes, increasing efficiency of schools and teaching staffs in rural communities and affording the children these schools the full educational advantages they deserve, are some of the problems the Joint Committee on Rural Schools is tackling. As the result of the facts and sentiment disclosed at these various conferences held throughout the state, the committee is expected to recommend definite remedial legislation for rural schools to the Legislature. Because of the interest of every family in this question, the meeting in Oneonta a week from Saturday promises to be a big one, with plenty of speakers and a large interested audience.

WILL AID FORMER SOLDIERS

Clean-Up Squad Will Visit City Nov. 28 and 29 to Help Settle Claims for Compensation, Back Pay, Insurance, Vocational Training, Etc.—Part of National Wide Campaign.

H. L. Chinkscates of New York city, representative of the United States Veterans' Bureau, was in the city yesterday making arrangements for the visit to Oneonta on November 28 and 29 of the Clean-Up Squad, a government organization whose purpose it is to bring the claims of ex-service men to adjudication. The squad will be at the post office building on the dates named.

The United States Veterans' Bureau is a consolidation of the Federal Board for Vocational Training, the Bureau of War Risk Insurance and certain parts of the Public Health Service, and has been entrusted by the government with the task of clearing up all matters pertaining to compensation, vocational training, insurance, back pay, allotments, and medical and hospital treatment. To this end it is sending Clean-Up Squads throughout the country. The American Red Cross is taking an active part in the campaign and has authorized the expenditure of over $300,000 to aid the squads in their work of satisfying the claims of former soldiers.

There are in every community many ex-service men who, while suffering from disabilities incurred in the service of their country, are unaware of the opportunities for rehabilitation which the authorities hold out to them. Included in this army of potential beneficiaries are many whose disabilities are only now beginning to manifest themselves. It is these cases that the squad desires most of all to settle, but it will also handle cases relative to insurance, backpay, allotments, etc. It should be understood that the Clean-Up Squad is not a court of last resort but only gets the claims in such shape that they can be acted upon promptly by the proper authorities.

The squad is composed of three doctors, a vocational training expert, a compensation and insurance expert, an American Legion representative, and a field representative of the American Red Cross. This will be the only visit of the squad to this section and ex-service men in Otsego county who have claims against the government or who were wounded, disabled or incapacitated for work by disease contracted in the service and who deem themselves eligible for government assistance, are urged to consult the squad.

Every man calling to be interviewed should bring with him his original discharge, his award of compensation and any other papers pertaining to any other claim he may have previously made. It is considered advisable that men intending to see the squad should first consult Miss Beulah Holdredge, executive secretary of the home service division of the Red Cross. She is in a position to render such assistance as will facilitate the placing of the claims before the Clean-Up Squad. Miss Holdredge may be found at the Community house on Ford avenue.

DINNER WELL PATRONIZED

Oneonta Hotel Dining Room Re-opened Under Mr. Stanford's Management.

The Oneonta Hotel restaurant was re-opened yesterday under the management of Mr. Stanford, owner of the hotel, and it was well patronized both by the traveling public and the residents of the city. Many of the diners congratulating Mr. Stanford upon the move and upon the excellent meals served during the day.

From 5 until 9 o'clock last evening a course dinner was served at the popular price of $1 and the dining room was well filled throughout the evening with many complimentary remarks expressed to Mr. Stanford and E. J. McDonough who is to be the active manager in charge.

During the evening an excellent orchestra played and the music was well received. Mr. Stanford expects to make some betterments to the interior arrangements and to have the spacious room in readiness for the Dairymen's convention next week.

Will Plan Armistice Celebration.

Plans for the regular monthly meeting of the American Legion, to be held at 8 o'clock this evening in K. of P. hall, indicate that it will be one of the most successful in the history of the local post. The Legion quarter will provide musical entertainment and the most significant has promised an abundance of flowers.

It is hoped that there will be a large attendance, as definite plans will be made for the ceremonies to be held on Armistice day at the time of the burial of the unknown American soldier in Arlington cemetery.

ANNUAL ELECTION TODAY

POLLS TO OPEN AT SIX O'CLOCK AND CLOSE AT SIX TONIGHT

Interest Centers Largely in City and Town Tickets With Spirited Contests for City and Town Officers—Seven Amendments Demand Consideration.

Today occurs the annual fall election and while but one state officer is to be chosen, there are spirited elections in the city and various towns of the county and interest centers almost entirely in them.

The polls will open at 6 o'clock this morning and will close at 6 this evening, after which the count of the ballots will commence. It is expected, owing to the fact that there is no national ticket and only one candidate on the state ticket and with the election largely local in character, that there will be many split tickets, with the result that the count will be slow. In all of the towns officers are to be elected and in this city the entire list of elective officers are to be chosen.

City Clerk Close was busily engaged yesterday with helpers in getting the ballots and election blanks into the hands of the election boards and the polling places in the 12 districts within the city in shape for the election. The task was completed late in the afternoon and the machinery of election appears well lubricated and in good working order. In some of the districts, however, election boards comprised in large part of inexperienced hands, are serving and it will doubtless delay the counting of the ballots to an extent.

In the city the election has been clean. Several of the minority nominees have waged a more active campaign than in recent years and are, if indications may be relied upon, hopeful of election. In many of the towns the contests especially for supervisor have been keen, but so far as reported the campaigns have been well conducted and without resort to questionable procedure.

There are seven amendments to the state constitution to be voted upon and each should be given consideration and the will of each individual voter recorded in order that none that are meritorious are defeated and none that are objectionable are approved. These will be submitted on a separate ballot and it should not be cast aside as unimportant.

The obligation rests upon every registered voter to cast a ballot and none able to reach the polling place and

CHEST NOW OVER $16,000

Believed That $20,000 Will Be Reached and That All Organizations Will With Other Donations, Independent of Chest, Carry Out Program.

Latest reports are to the effect that the Community Chest now totals over $16,000 and that with solicitors still at work many who have not been interviewed and others to be reached by letter who have not been easy to find, the chest will reach fully $20,000 and perhaps exceed that amount. This sum, it is now believed, will be sufficient to enable all of the organizations to carry out the programs of work which have been outlined.

Three of the organizations, the Salvation Army, the Boy Scouts and the Girl Scouts, have been designated by subscribers as recipients of sums that will aggregate approximately the budgets required for each of them. Of the total subscriptions only about 40 per cent were assigned to any organization. The remainder will be apportioned among the seven organizations in such a manner as to give each of them the same percentage of their budget requirements.

When the Community association canvassers have completed the solicitations for the Community Chest, then it is understood to be the plan to throw down the bars and permit each of the organizations so desiring and requiring additional funds to solicit among those who have not contributed to the Chest, but who, they may have reason to believe, are particularly interested in their work and will be willing to contribute directly to their treasury.

Thus it is the confident belief of the Community association and of the Chest directors, each will be provided with funds sufficient to finance its work for the year. In the meantime it is suggested that any desiring to contribute to one or an, number of the organizations may so do by sending or filling out a card at the Community house for such amounts to such organizations as they choose, saving time both of present canvassers and later of individual workers for each separate organization.

Three hundred down will buy a good double house, centrally located. A good investment. Smith & Peaslee 130 Main street. advt. 4t.

DEATH OF CHARLES A. NORTH.

Well Known Resident of Middlefield and Former Supervisor Dead.

Middlefield, Nov. 7.—After months of suffering, Charles A. North passed quietly away Saturday morning at his home in this village. He was born in this town in 1857 and was the son of Harrison and Helen North. In 1881 he was married to Margaret M. North, whose death occurred in 1892. For many years he was associated with the North family in the mercantile business and later with Charles B. North, his brother-in-law. Mr. North retired from business in 1910. Mr. North served the town in various capacities, including town clerk and supervisor and was always active in leading a helping hand to every effort for community advancement. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Floyd Pitts, who has tenderly cared for him during his long illness; and by two granddaughters, Linda and Doris Pitts.

This Monday afternoon a large gathering of relatives and friends, including friends from Oneonta, Cooperstown and Little Falls, gathered at his late home for the funeral services. Rev. J. G. Itie conducted the services and paid a fitting tribute to the man as one held in the highest esteem by all who knew him intimately. There was a beautiful display of floral tributes from individuals and from fraternal and church societies. Interment was in the village cemetery.

LOCAL LEADERS' CONFERENCE

Four Important Meetings Arranged for Starting Home-Making Work With Junior Project Girls — Miss Nancy McNeal Will Be Present.

In closing the year's work with practically all projects being carried on by Junior Project Workers, it is interesting to know that work for another year is already under way. County Leader of Junior Extension announces that already nearly 40 clubs of girls are organized and making plans for work next year. In order to help this work along and to be of greatest assistance to the ladies that are voluntarily acting as local leaders for these groups of girls in home-making work, four special meetings have been arranged.

Parents of the girls, and especially the local leaders, will be glad to know that Miss Nancy McNeal, home-making specialist from the State College of Agriculture, will be present for all meetings. From the many splendid helps secured from Miss McNeal last year, all leaders will be extremely anxious to again attend the demonstration and find out the short cuts, the simple and real practical ways of handling the work for the girls.

Places of Meetings.

On Thursday morning, November 10th, commencing promptly at 10 o'clock, leaders in and around West Oneonta will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Tabor. On the afternoon of the 10th, at 2 o'clock, a similar meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. William R. Seiber in Milford. Friday morning, November 11th, at 10 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Louise Cushman in Schuyler Lake, and Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce building at Cooperstown.

For these first series of meetings all parents and ladies interested in the Home-Making project will be welcome. Come and find out the great opportunity that Junior Project work offers your girl. These meetings are arranged primarily for help to local leaders and to give parents a fuller conception of the work being carried on. In January and March additional conferences and demonstrations will be held for local leaders only.
